Blackbriar by William Sleator, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Blackbriar is perfectly eerie — the isolated country cottage has a secret passageway, an unsavory past (it was used as a pesthouse during the 17th century plague), an eccentric neighbor (Lord Harleigh who's overheard plotting with the village librarian), and even a resident ghost with the delightful name of Mary Peachy. Philippa and her Siamese cat Islington both seem distinctly unnerved ...
